

Magellan Health Services Releases 2010 Annual Report

Report highlights Magellan employees and their commitment to excellence, innovation and service on behalf of the people they serve

AVON, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Magellan Health Services, Inc., (NASDAQ: MGLN) has released its 2010 Annual Report, "It's Who We Are." The report shares the company's successes through the eyes of the employees who make them happen every day. Magellan's 5,000 employees nationwide comprise a talented organization of individuals tackling health care's most difficult challenges, producing innovative solutions that help consumers and providers, as well as employers, public sector and commercial health plans.

"We represent many things to the people entrusted to our care — clinical excellence, operational efficiency, product innovator, trusted partner, a community of caring, and technology expert — but it's our employees who bring it all together. They are Magellan," said chairman and CEO René Lerer, M.D., in the company's Annual Report.

The report highlights:

- Magellan's nationally recognized suicide prevention program and a suicide attempt survivor who has now joined forces with Magellan to help others
- An innovative approach to managing medical pharmacy benefits that helps payors better administer their medical drug costs, and assists payors, providers and consumers in effectively managing complex, costly chronic health conditions while driving improved health care outcomes
- Information technology applications that help consumers measure their radiation exposure during imaging procedures; children overcome fears of getting an X-ray, CT scan or MRI; and providers manage their claims and authorization requests more efficiently
- Operational enhancements that enable more rapid responses during clinical reviews to enhance communication with providers and so consumers can receive expedited access to the care they need
- Magellan's partnership with a local family services center to provide expanded crisis stabilization services around-the-clock, every day of the year
- The work that employees at one Magellan office have done over the past decade to support children with life-limiting illnesses and their families, as an illustration of the company's longstanding commitment to give back to the community

Magellan's Annual Report also includes the company's Form 10-K detailing financial information and results from 2010. The report can be accessed at <http://ir.magellanhealth.com/financials.cfm>.
