

Magellan Health Services' ICORE Hosts 8th Annual Oncology Summit

Oncology leaders to discuss key issues and the latest emerging trends

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Several leading oncology authorities will meet this Friday, September 16, at ICORE Healthcare's 8th Annual Oncology Summit to discuss the latest trends and issues impacting oncology care, including health care reform, drug pipeline, genetic testing advances and changes in the payor landscape, among other topics. ICORE, the specialty pharmaceuticals management division of Magellan Health Services (NASDAQ: MGLN), will host the event at New York City's Crowne Plaza Times Square from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The summit will feature presentations from key oncologists and industry leaders representing research institutes, hospitals, industry associations, health plans and payors. Sessions will address:

- Current trends and issues for oncology payors
- Impact of health care reform on oncology care
- Managed care benefit designs
- Clinical utilization management
- Oncology drug development and management
- Genetic testing
- Cost of oncology care
- Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs)
- Oncology and Medicaid

"Oncology is a complex, constantly evolving field that is always presenting new challenges for providers, pharmaceutical companies, health plans and specialty pharmacy managers," said Alan Lotvin, M.D., president of ICORE Healthcare. "The Oncology Summit is an opportunity for all of us to come together to discuss the latest advances in medicine, best practices for managing cancer care, and the ways in which we can continue to provide the highest quality care and optimal patient outcomes while controlling costs."

Attending the Summit

The Oncology Summit is open to representatives from health plans, oncology practices, specialty pharmacies and pharmaceutical manufacturers.
