AVON, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Magellan Health Services Inc. (NASDAQ: MGLN) today announced that in response to the devastating West, Texas, fire it has made a variety of resources available to support individuals in the community. Specifically the company has established a 24-hour toll-free hotline to help individuals process feelings of grief, sorrow and depression following the fire, regardless of whether or not they are Magellan customers. Additionally, the company has posted a toolkit of materials on its website. These materials are available at <http://magellanhealth.com/our-company/magellan-cares/fire-in-west-tx.aspx>. The hotline is staffed by behavioral health professionals to offer counseling services to help people cope with the feelings of sadness, anger and hopelessness that can occur following such a tragedy. The number is 1-800-327-7451.

"Obviously, the situation in West, Texas, is devastating and all of us at Magellan want to take every opportunity to support those in need at this difficult time," said Barry M. Smith, Magellan's CEO. "This industrial fire has caused significant devastation, including numerous fatalities and homelessness. As a national leader in behavioral health, we want to make certain that people have access to information that can help and professionals who can counsel them. While we have several customers in the impacted area, we feel it is important to make these resources available broadly."
